CITY OF SAN DIEGO

LOBBYING FIRM QUARTERLY DISCLOSURE REPORT

[Form EC-803]

INTRODUCTION

The Quarterly Disclosure Report is used to disclose a lobbying firm's lobbying activities during the reporting period, its activity expenses, and the campaign contributions, campaign fundraising activities, campaign-related services, and City contracts associated with any owner, officer, or lobbyist in the firm.

File one Quarterly Disclosure Report to cover the activities of the entire lobbying firm. Note that this is a departure from the City's previous reporting procedures. Under the new procedures, individual lobbyists do not file disclosure statements. All information relevant to the individual lobbyists should be contained within the firm's report.

The reporting period is one of the following calendar quarters: January through March; April through June; July through September; and October through December. The report must be filed no later than the end of the month following the quarter. For example, the deadline for the April-June quarterly report is the last day of July.

The Quarterly Disclosure Report form is available from the City Clerk. Electronic versions are available on the City Clerk's website: www.sandiego.gov/city-clerk/elections/lobby/index.shtml

You may type or print on the form. If printing, use blue or black ink. If using the electronic version of the form, note that you can type on the form with your computer, but you cannot save the information you enter unless you have the full version of Adobe Acrobat.

When you file the Quarterly Disclosure Report, include only the cover sheet and the schedules that contain the firm's disclosures. Do not file the instruction sheets or any schedules on which the firm has nothing to report.

File the original completed and signed form with the City Clerk.

Instructions for Schedule A: Client Disclosure

Complete this schedule if your firm represented any clients during the reporting period. Your firm "represents" a client when it engages in lobbying activities on behalf of a client, regardless of whether or not it is compensated for those efforts. Lobbying occurs when a member of your firm has a direct communication (e.g., meeting, telephone call, letter, or e-mail) with a City Official outside of a public meeting for the purpose of influencing a municipal decision on behalf of a client. "Lobbying activities" also include monitoring municipal decisions, preparing testimony and presentations, conducting research, performing investigations, gathering facts, attending hearings, communicating with clients, and waiting to meet with officials, to the extent that such activities are related to influencing a municipal decision.

Completing the Form:

- Identify the firm's name at the top of each schedule.
- Fill out a schedule for each client for whom the firm provided lobbying services during the reporting period.
- Identify the client's name, address, and telephone number at the top of each schedule (below the firm's name). If the client is a coalition or membership organization with members who are also "clients," you are not required to identify those members on the Quarterly Disclosure Report. Be sure, however, that they are appropriately identified on the firm's Registration Form. See the instructions for the Registration Form for more information.
- Identify the total compensation (to the nearest $1,000) the firm became entitled to receive from the client during the period. Include the amount actually received for lobbying and lobbying-related activities performed during the period, as well as any amounts earned, but not yet received, for lobbying activities performed during the period.
  - ✓ Enter the compensation amount only on the first sheet of a client's schedule (you may leave this space blank on any continuation sheets for the same client).
  - ✓ Enter "zero" for any pro bono clients and any contingency clients who are not yet obligated to pay your firm.
  - ✓ Do not include compensation earned or received for services that were rendered outside the reporting period.
  - ✓ Do not include compensation the firm received solely for "indirect" lobbying efforts, such as public relations and advertising. Such sums, if $5,000 or more in a calendar quarter, should be reported by the client as an "Expenditure Lobbyist." See the Expenditure Lobbyist disclosure forms and fact sheets for more information.
- Each Client Disclosure schedule sheet contains space for reporting information regarding two municipal decisions for a particular client. Attach as many continuation sheets as are necessary to report all the municipal decisions your firm sought to influence during the reporting period on behalf of each client.
- For each municipal decision, disclose: (1) a description of the decision; (2) the outcome sought by your client; (3) the names and departments of each City Official lobbied (see list below); and (4) the names of each individual lobbyist in your firm who engaged in lobbying activities with regard to this decision during the reporting period
  - ✓ Do not include the names of City Officials whom you addressed only at public meetings held in accordance with the Brown Act. Do not include the names of City employees who are not "City Officials."
  - ✓ Note that some City Officials use a working title that is different from their official title. Check the Ethics Commission website for a list of unclassified City Officials and their official titles.
- Check the box at the bottom of the page if you have additional "Client Disclosure" information to report (e.g., more clients or municipal decisions), and disclose that information on a continuation sheet (i.e., another copy of the "Client Disclosure" schedule). Identify the firm's name and the client's name at the top of each continuation sheet. You do not need to restate the client's address or compensation amount on the continuation sheets.

Note: "City Officials" are limited to the following positions of the City and the City's agencies: elected officeholder; Council staff member; Council Committee Consultant; Council Representative; Assistant City Attorney; Deputy City Attorney; General Counsel; Chief; Assistant Chief; Deputy Chief; Assistant Deputy Chief; City Manager; Assistant City Manager; Deputy City Manager; Management Assistant to City Manager Treasurer; Auditor and Comptroller; Independent Budget Analyst; Budget/Legislative Analyst; Financial Operations Manager; City Clerk; Labor Relations Manager; Retirement Administrator; Director; Assistant Director; Deputy Director; Assistant Deputy Director; Chief Executive Officer; Chief Operating Officer; Chief Financial Officer; President; and Vice-President. "City Officials" also include any member of a City board, commission, or committee who is required to file a Statement of Economic Interests.

Instructions for Schedule B: Activity Expenses

Complete and attach this schedule only if the firm made activity expenses during the reporting period. If no activity expenses were made, check the applicable box on the cover sheet, and do not attach Schedule B.

An "activity expense" means any payment made to, or on behalf of, any City Official or any member of a City Official's immediate family, by a lobbyist, lobbying firm, or organization lobbyist. Activity expenses include gifts, meals, consulting fees, salaries, and any other form of compensation to a City Official or a City Official's immediate family, but do not include campaign contributions. For example, a $3,000 consulting fee paid to a Department Director's spouse would be considered a reportable activity expense.

Completing the form:

- Identify the firm's name at the top of each schedule.
- Identify each activity expense made during the reporting period that exceeds $10 on any single occasion.
- For each activity expense identified, be sure to disclose:
  - ✓ the date of the expense;
  - ✓ a description of the expense (e.g., "consulting fees paid to John Smith");
  - ✓ the name, title, and department of the City Official who benefited (or whose immediate family benefited) from the activity expense;
  - ✓ the name of each lobbyist in the firm who participated in making the activity expense;
  - ✓ the name and address of the payee of the activity expense;
  - ✓ the amount of the expense; and,
  - ✓ the name of any client on whose behalf the activity expense was made.
- Attach as many continuation sheets as are necessary to report all the activity expenses the firm made during the reporting period.
- Check the box at the bottom of the page if attaching an additional continuation sheet. Be sure to identify the name of the firm on the top of each continuation sheet.

Note: City law limits gifts (e.g., meals, tickets to events) from lobbying firms and its lobbyists to $10 per City Official within a calendar month. This means that if a lobbyist in your firm purchases an $8 lunch for a particular City Official, neither the firm nor any of its lobbyists may purchase a $3 beverage for that official in the same calendar month. Because the Activity Expenses schedule only requires the reporting of activity expenses that exceed $10, your firm should have no gifts to report.

Note: Tickets and invitations to events held for non-profit entities (e.g., the Chamber of Commerce, Father Joe's Villages) are not considered gifts for purposes of the Lobbying Ordinance. Accordingly, they are not subject to the $10 limit and need not be reported on the Quarterly Report Form. Note, however, that such tickets and invitations may be considered gifts under the City's Ethics Ordinance and could subject to the recipient to that Ordinance's gift limits, reporting requirements, and disqualification rules.

Instructions for Schedule C: Campaign Disclosures – City Candidates

Complete and attach this schedule only if one or more of the firm's owners, officers, or lobbyists made contributions of $100 or more during the reporting period to a candidate for City office. Note that elected City Officials (the Mayor, City Councilmembers, and the City Attorney) are considered "candidates" under campaign laws for as long as they remain in office, and are also "candidates" for purposes of this schedule. If no such contributions were made, check the applicable box on the cover sheet, and do not attach Schedule C.

Completing the form:

- Identify the firm's name at the top of each schedule.
- For each contribution of $100 or more made by an owner, officer, or lobbyist of the firm during the reporting period, state:
  - ✓ the applicable name of the owner, officer, or lobbyist;
  - ✓ the name of the candidate supported;
  - ✓ the date of the contribution; and
  - ✓ the amount of the contribution.
- Attach as many continuation sheets as are necessary to report all contributions made by the owners, officers, and lobbyists in the firm during the reporting period.
- Check the box at the bottom of the page if attaching an additional continuation sheet. Be sure to identify the name of the firm on the top of each continuation sheet.

For example: Jane is one of the lobbying firm's partners. In October, she writes a personal check for $250 and gives it to a candidate seeking office in an upcoming City election. When the lobbying firm prepares its October-December disclosure report, it must identify the $250 contribution, including Jane's name, the date and amount of the contribution, and the name of the candidate.

For example: After Councilmember Lopez is sworn into office, she sends out mailers soliciting contributions to retire her campaign debt. Richard, one of the firm's lobbyists, sends a personal check for $150 to Councilmember Lopez. Even though the Councilmember is now an officeholder, she is also still a "candidate," and Richard's firm must disclose the $150 contribution on its next quarterly disclosure report.

SCHEDULE C: CAMPAIGN DISCLOSURE – CITY CANDIDATES

Name of Lobbying Firm: ____

Fill out a separate entry for EACH contribution of $100 or more made by an owner, officer, or lobbyist of the firm during the reporting period to a City candidate committee. (Do not use this schedule to report contributions made to a candidate-controlled ballot measure committee; use the schedule that follows for ballot measure contributions.)

Name of individual making the contribution: ____

Name of candidate supported: ____

Date contribution made: ___________________________ Amount of contribution: $___________________

Instructions for Schedule D: Campaign Disclosures – Candidate Controlled Ballot Measure Committees

Complete and attach this schedule only if the firm or any of its owners, officers, or lobbyists made contributions of $100 or more during the reporting period to a City ballot measure committee controlled by a City candidate. Note that elected City Officials (the Mayor, City Councilmembers, and the City Attorney) are considered "candidates" under campaign laws for as long as they remain in office, and are also "candidates" for purposes of this schedule.

It is not difficult to determine if a candidate "controls" a ballot measure committee. Under the City's campaign laws, when a candidate "controls" a committee, that candidate's name must appear on all of the committee's mass-distributed campaign literature, including its door hangers, mailers, and yard signs.

If no contributions to a candidate-controlled ballot measure committee were made, check the applicable box on the cover sheet, and do not attach Schedule D.

Completing the form:

- Identify the firm's name at the top of each schedule.
- For each contribution of $100 or more made by the firm or by any of its owners, officers, or lobbyists during the reporting period, state:
  - ✓ the name of the applicable owner, officer, or lobbyist;
  - ✓ the date of the contribution;
  - ✓ the amount of the contribution;
  - ✓ the name of the committee; and,
  - ✓ the name of the candidate controlling the committee.
- Attach as many continuation sheets as are necessary to report all such contributions made by the owners, officers, and lobbyists in the firm during the reporting period.
- Check the box at the bottom of the page if attaching an additional continuation sheet. Be sure to identify the name of the firm on the top of each continuation sheet.

For example: Oscar is one of the firm's lobbyists. In August, he writes a personal check for $500 to support a City ballot measure opposing an increase in the City's transient occupancy tax. He gives the check to a ballot measure committee called "Citizens Against Higher Taxes." That committee is controlled by Sandra Smith, a City Councilmember. (Oscar knows that Sandra Smith controls the committee because her name appears on all of the committee's door hangers and mailers.) That same month, Oscar's firm writes a check for $3,000 and gives it to "Citizens for a Better City," a committee that supports the same ballot measure, but is not controlled by a candidate.

When the lobbying firm prepares its July-September disclosure report, it must identify Oscar's $500 contribution, along with the date it was made, the amount, the name of the committee, and the name of the candidate who controlled the committee. The $3,000 contribution made by Oscar's firm does not need to be disclosed because its contribution went to a committee that is not controlled by a candidate

SCHEDULE D: CAMPAIGN DISCLOSURES – CANDIDATE CONTROLLED BALLOT MEASURE COMMITTEES

Name of Lobbying Firm: ____________________

Fill out a separate entry for EACH contribution of $100 or more made by the firm or any of its owners, officers, or lobbyists during the reporting period to a City ballot measure committee controlled by a City candidate or officeholder. (Do not use this schedule to report contributions made to support a candidate seeking elective office; use the preceding schedule for those types of contributions.)

Instructions for Schedule E: Fundraising Activities

Complete and attach this schedule only if one or more of the firm's owners, officers, or lobbyists engaged in "fundraising activities" of $1,000 or more during the reporting period for a candidate for City office or for a ballot measure committee controlled by a candidate. If no such fundraising activity took place, check the applicable box on the cover sheet, and do not attach Schedule E.

"Fundraising activity" is defined in the Lobbying Ordinance to mean soliciting, or directing others to solicit, campaign contributions from one or more contributors, either personally or by hosting or sponsoring a fundraising event, and either: (1) personally delivering $1,000 or more in contributions to a candidate or a candidate's controlled committee, or (2) identifying oneself to a candidate or a candidate's controlled committee as having any degree of responsibility for $1,000 or more in contributions received as a result of that solicitation.

Completing the form:

- Identify the firm's name at the top of each schedule.
- If an owner, officer, or lobbyist fundraise a total of $1,000 or more for the same candidate during the reporting period:
  - ✓ fill out a separate entry for each instance in the period where that person engaged in fundraising activities.
  - ✓ disclose each of that person's fundraising efforts, even if a specific instance of fundraising didn't meet the $1,000 threshold or if different dates or events were involved. For example, report both an April fundraiser that raised $600 and a June fundraiser that raised $400 for the same candidate.
- For each instance of fundraising activity, state:
  - ✓ a brief description of the fundraising activity (e.g., "hosted a fundraiser" or "mailed solicitations to 20 business associates");
  - ✓ the name of the owner, officer, or lobbyist who engaged in the fundraising activity;
  - ✓ the name of the candidate who benefited, or whose ballot measure committee benefited, from the fundraising activity;
  - ✓ a description of any applicable ballot measure;
  - ✓ the date(s) of the fundraising activity (e.g., the date a fundraiser was held, the week that contribution solicitations were mailed); and,
  - ✓ the total amount of contributions raised through the fundraising effort. Identify the total amount that an owner, officer, or lobbyist of the firm helped raise, even if they were one of several persons involved in the fundraising effort. Do not reduce this amount on the basis of anyone's proportionate involvement.
- Attach as many continuation sheets as are necessary to report all such fundraising activities by the owners, officers, and lobbyists in the firm during the reporting period.
- Check the box at the bottom of the page if attaching an additional continuation sheet. Be sure to identify the name of the firm on the top of each continuation sheet.

For example: Mary is a partner in a lobbying firm. John and Bill are two of the firm's lobbyists. Candidate Smith asks Mary, John, and Bill to help raise money for his City Council election campaign. Candidate Smith gives each of them a stack of remittance envelopes and asks them to distribute the envelopes to their friends and associates for contributions to his campaign.

- ➢ Mary hosts a fundraiser at her house, collects $5,500 in contribution checks, and delivers them to Candidate Smith.
- ➢ John writes his name on a corner of each envelope and mails them to a dozen of his associates, asking them to place a contribution in the envelope and send it to the candidate. John later finds out (through his associates or the candidate) that those associates contributed a total of $2,000 to Candidate Smith.
- ➢ Bill calls ten of his friends and encourages them to go to Mary's fundraiser. He takes no further action.

When the firm prepares its quarterly disclosure report, it must identify Mary's and John's fundraising activities. Both solicited campaign contributions, and both made sure the candidate knew they were responsible for more than $1,000 in contributions. Bill's fundraising activities do not need to be disclosed – even though he solicited his friends on behalf of Candidate Smith, he never obtained any credit for contributions that might have resulted from his solicitations.

SCHEDULE E: FUNDRAISING ACTIVITIES

Name of Lobbying Firm: ____

Fill out a separate entry for EACH instance in the reporting period where an owner, officer, or lobbyist of the firm engaged in fundraising activities (if that individual has reached the $1,000 threshold):

Description of fundraising activity: ____

☐ If more space is needed, check box and attach continuation sheet(s).

Instructions for Schedule F: Campaign Services

Complete and attach this schedule only if one or more of the firm's owners, officers, or lobbyists provided compensated campaign services (e.g., consulting services) to a City candidate during the reporting period. Such services could be related to the candidate seeking office, or to a ballot measure committee controlled by the candidate. The services must be performed in exchange for a salary, bonus, or some other form of economic consideration. Do not disclose volunteer work performed for a candidate. If no compensated campaign services were rendered, check the applicable box on the cover sheet, and do not attach Schedule F.

Completing the form:

- Identify the firm's name at the top of each schedule.
- Fill out a separate entry for each owner, officer, and lobbyist in the firm who provided campaign services to a City candidate during the reporting period.
- If the services were provided to a candidate for elective City office, identify the name of the candidate and the office sought.
- If the services were provided to a candidate-controlled ballot measure committee, identify the name of the committee, the name of the candidate controlling the committee, and a brief description of the ballot measure (e.g., "increase transient occupancy taxes").
- Identify the approximate amount of compensation that the owner, officer, or lobbyist earned for campaign services during the reporting period. If the individual has not yet been paid, but may be entitled to a contingency-based form of compensation (e.g., a "win bonus"), indicate "contingency" on the form.
- Provide a brief description of the services provided (e.g., "served as campaign consultant for Candidate A").
- Attach as many continuation sheets as are necessary to report all compensated campaign services provided by the owners, officers, and lobbyists in the firm during the reporting period.
- Check the box at the bottom of the page if attaching an additional continuation sheet. Be sure to identify the name of the firm on the top of each continuation sheet.

For example: Tim is a professional campaign consultant. During non-election years, he works for clients who pay him to lobby City officials. Accordingly, he registers as a lobbying firm. In November, he starts working on a campaign for a candidate seeking City office the following year. When he prepares his firm's October-December disclosure report, he must identify his campaign activities, including the name of the candidate and the office that candidate is seeking, the approximate amount of compensation he received from the candidate during the reporting period, and a description of the campaign services he provided to the candidate during the reporting period.

SCHEDULE F: CAMPAIGN SERVICES

Instructions for Schedule G: City Contract Services

Complete and attach this schedule only if one or more of the firm's owners, officers, or lobbyists provided compensated services during the reporting period under a City contract either as an employee, consultant, or independent contractor. If, for example, one of the firm's partners was hired by the Mayor's office to provide consulting services in connection with outsourcing a City function, then the firm must report this relationship with the Mayor. If no compensated services were rendered, check the applicable box on the cover sheet, and do not attach Schedule G.

Completing the form:

- Identify the firm's name at the top of each schedule.
- Fill out a separate entry for each owner, officer, and lobbyist in the firm who personally provided compensated services under a contract with the City during the reporting period. Note that "City" includes all of the City's departments, agencies (such as CCDC and the Housing Commission), boards, and commissions.
- Identify the name of the person in the firm who provided the services.
- Identify the name of the applicable City department, agency, or board.
- State the approximate amount of compensation that person earned during the reporting period (regardless of whether the compensation was actually received).
- Provide a brief description of the services that were rendered (e.g., "consulting services pertaining to possible outsourcing computer services").
- Attach as many continuation sheets as are necessary to report all compensated services provided by the owners, officers, and lobbyists in the firm during the reporting period.
- Check the box at the bottom of the page if attaching an additional continuation sheet. Be sure to identify the name of the firm on the top of each continuation sheet.

For example: Malcom is a lobbyist in a lobbying firm, and he specializes in environmental matters. Because of his expertise, the City's Environmental Services Department retains him as a consultant to evaluate the impact of a proposed hazardous waste program. Malcom starts and completes the contract in March. He submits a bill for $2,500 and he's paid in April. When his firm prepares its January-March quarterly disclosure report, it must report that (1) Malcom provided services to the City; (2) the services were provided to the Environmental Services Department; (3) Malcom earned $2,500 for the services he provided; and (4) Malcom's work involved evaluating the environmental impact of a proposed hazardous waste program. Note: when the firm prepares its April-June quarterly disclosure report, it need not disclose this consulting contract even though the payment was received in April (because the payment was "earned" and reported in the prior quarter).
